The musical score consists of three staves. The Soprano staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. It contains the lyrics: "hear me, to hear me day and night, to hear me day". The Alto staff has an alto clef and contains the lyrics: "to hear me day and night, to hear". The Tenor staff has a bass clef and contains the lyrics: "night, day and night, to hear me day and night,". There are various musical notations including whole notes, half notes, quarter notes, eighth notes, and rests.

hear me, to hear me day and night, to hear me day—to hear me day_____ and _____ night, to hear night, day and night, to hear me day_____ and _____ night, and night, day and night, day and night.

 me day and night, day and night.
 to hear me day and night.

Part of my complete edition of the published vocal works of William Byrd made available through the Choral Public Domain Library (<http://www.cpd.org>). For general editorial notes, please visit my user page at <http://www.cpd.org/wiki/index.php/User:DaveF>. All scores are made freely available according to the CPDL Licence for downloading, printing, performing and recording. No further conditions are or can be attached, although it's always good to hear of any performances. Please do not, without consulting me, make copies of my scores available through other websites – there's no need, first of all, as CPDL is always here, and secondly by doing so you put these editions beyond my control and so will miss out on any updates and revisions.
